Foreword

Mayodan is growing, and with it Mayodan High School. The Class of 1950 is symbolic of that growth. Where the Class of '49 graduated thirteen, now thirty Seniors are striving to graduate.

We, the Seniors, are proud to present this Anchor, together with our best wishes. In looking over this book may you review the joys of this school year.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class, respectfully dedicate this, the Anchor of 1950 to Miss Gladys Joyce in appreciation of her interest, inspiration, and fellowship during the past four years. To Miss Joyce we extend our thanks for the past, and best wishes for the future.

History

We began our trek through school some years ago, hoping to grow up and make our mark in the world. Our first teachers along the way were Mrs. Loftis and Miss Siscell. There were two grades because there was such a large class. There were two grades until we reached the eighth grade and Mrs. Wade Lemons.

We came through the grammar grades with no tragedies, except maybe the loss of a classmate who thought passing would be too much of a strain. Some changed schools, and occasionally a new student joined our class.

Finally, when we reached the eighth grade, there were fifty of us. Mrs. Wade Lemons was our teacher that year. She taught us a great deal, but we had fun just the same.

Thus we began our high school careers. Miss Joyce started us off in the ninth grade, and Mrs. Don Stillwell helped us along the way in the tenth. The eleventh grade was a very full year, for we sponsored the banquet (with a few helpful hints from Coach Leon Moore) and gave a class play, "Spring Fever", which was murdered on the night of May 6, 1949, with the help of a number of us.

This year we graduate (we hope) amid tears of sorrow at our leaving. But, seriously, our years in Mayodan High School have been wonderful, though tough going at times.

With the help of Miss Dozier we publish the Anchor this year, and plan to give a senior play. These, with other Senior activities will end our happy years at

DEAR OLD MAYODAN HIGH.

Last Will and Testament

State of North Carolina

County of Rockingham

We, the Senior Class of Mayodan High School, the majority sound of mind, on this thirtieth day of May, in the year nineteen hundred fifty, do declare this writing to be our last will and testament, hereby making void all other testimonial writing heretofore made by us. We do hereby will and bequeath, all property, real and personal, to be bestowed as follows:

Section I

Article I. To Mayodan High School we wish to express our love and sincerest devotion.

Article II. To the faculty, our appreciation for their understanding and patience.

Article III. To Miss Gladys Joyce, we dedicate our annual, the year book of nineteen hundred fifty, in appreciation for her many services rendered us.

Section II

Article I. To the incoming Seniors we leave our Caps and Gowns, hoping they can fill them as well as we did.

Article II. To the incoming Juniors we leave our record that they may strive to be better.

Article III. To the freshmen we leave the joy of being in High School for their first year.

Section III

Article I. Earl Vaughn leaves his love for the girls at Madison to Johnny Sisk.

Article II. To Ray "Menu" Shaffer goes Ray Griffin's ability to wash cars.

Article III. Rodney Knight leaves his fine hair to "Moon" Atkins.

Article IV. Joe Edwards leaves his physique to Donny Amos and Bud Hodge.

Article V. Sonny Tullock leaves his ability to type to Charles Martin.

Article VI. Lincoln Pike leaves his ability to get to school on time to Merle Baughn.

Article VII. To Francis Hurd goes Wayne Anderson's interest in Women.

Article VIII. Barbara Carter leaves her ability to dance to Bobby Myers and Peggy Collins.

Article IX. Daphne Gravley leaves to Ray Joyce her good grades.

Article X. Garland Pearson wills his ability to get along with girls to Rahn Boyer.

Article XI. Gladys Hawkins leaves her love for being a "soda jerk" to Linda Shreve.

Article XII. To Esther Martin and Irene Craig, Sarah Martin leaves her love for the Radio Station.

Article XIII. Doris James wills her friendliness to Adlee Hutchens and Ruth Hill.

Article XIV. Billy Glidewell leaves his love for referees to Dan Atkins.

Article XV. To Ann Purgason and Peggy Atkins goes Jane Pyrtle's love for typing and bookkeeping.

Article XVI. Nancy Hicks leaves her love for the opposite sex to Janice Joyce and Mickey Pike.

Article XVII. Tommy Chambers leaves his meanness to anyone who will take it.

Article XVIII. Clyde Vernon leaves his love for athletics to Bill Price and Roger Joyce.

Article XIX. To June Hill, and Louise Vernon, Kathleen Portis leaves her silly grin.

Article XX. Barbara James wills her cheerfulness to Peggy Collins.

Article XXI. Jimmy Shreve just wants to leave.
